HPD Places 24 Charges Stemming from 2010 Case

May 27, 2011

The Harrisonburg Police Department, in partnership with the Rockingham County Sheriff's Office, has arrested three individuals from an incident that occurred in 2010.

On November 25, 2010 around 3 a.m., a group of males shot eight vehicles with a BB gun, causing more than $1,000 worth of damage.

The victim's vehicles were located in the:

- 500 block of Alleghany Drive
- 600 block of Broadview Drive
- 700 block of Broadview Drive
- 1000 block of Blue Ridge Drive
- 700 block of Old Furnace Road.

Through the investigation, police received information about the suspects, who were responsible for the crimes.

Most recently, on May 25, three males were charged for the property damage.

Bradley Miller, 20, of Rockingham County was charged with eight counts of property damage.

Steven Miller, Jr., 20, of Rockingham County was charged with eight counts of property damage.

Ryan Baker, 19, of Rockingham County was charged with eight counts of property damage.

Around the same time these individuals damaged additional vehicles and signs in Rockingham County. The Rockingham County Sheriff's Office also charged each individual with 12 counts of property damaged (three of which are felonies).
